RECITALS

WHEREAS

A. The Settlor desires to establish a trust for the benefit of the several person(s) identified by the Settlor whereby such persons agree to be bound by the provisions of this Deed which the party described in Section 2 of Schedule A attached hereto (hereinafter collectively referred to as the "Beneficiary").

B. The Trustee is a trust company incorporated pursuant to Trust Companies Act 1949 and is authorized to conduct any of the activities listed under Section 8 of the Trust Companies Act 1949.

C. The Settlor desirous to appoint the Trustee to act as a trustee of this Trust to manage and administer the Trust Fund in accordance to the terms and conditions herein andthe Trustee is agreeable to accept such appointment.

D. The Settlor and the Trustee are collectively referred to as the "Parties".

NOW, THEREFORE, IT IS HEREBY AGREED BY THE PARTIES AS FOLLOWS: -

1. TRUST

1.1 The purpose of this Deed is to establish the general covenants between the Settlor and the Trustee in establishing a Trust under each Declaration of Trust.

1.2 Each Declaration of Trust comprises a separate agreement for the establishment of Trust described in a Declaration of Trust and as such each Trust shall be established in three (3) years from the date of each Declaration of Trust subject to the determination of Trust as provided in clause 8 of this Deed, unless otherwise expressly provided in the Declaration of Trust (hereinafter referred to as the "Duration of Trust").

1.3 The purpose of the Trust is for the Trustee to hold on trust the Trust Fund on behalf of the Settlor and to manage and administer the Trust Fund strictly in accordance with the principles of Shariah, and to deal with all of the earnings, avails and proceeds derived of the Trust Fund as per the provisions of this Deed and/or the instructions of the Settlor for the Duration of Trust for the benefit of the Beneficiary.

2. BENEFICIARY

2.1 The Beneficiary of this Trust shall be the persons identified in each Declaration of Trust and shall be bound by the terms and conditions of this Deed during the Duration of Trust and as long as they remain as Beneficiary.

2.2 Upon the instruction of the Settlor, the Trustee may at any time appoint additional person(s) as Beneficiary or remove any of the existing Beneficiary from the benefit under the Trust by providing written notice to the Trustee and such change shall be effective within three (3) working days from the date the Trustee receives such notice.

2.3 In the event of the death, disclaimer, incapacity, bankruptcy or inability to be located of any Beneficiary prior to final distribution, that Beneficiary's entitlement shall be dealt with in accordance with the proportions and substitution provisions, if any, stated in Schedule A, and failing such provision, shall accrue to the remaining Beneficiaries in equal shares unless otherwise directed by the Settlor in writing and accepted by the Trustee.

3. ADMINISTRATION AND SHARIAH COMPLIANCE OF THE TRUST

3.1 Unless the Settlor expressly appoints a third party (hereinafter referred to as the "Advisor/Administrator") to manage and administer the Trust Fund in the Declaration of Trust, the Trustee shall have the discretion to manage and administer the Trust Fund and/or appoint a third party to manage and administer the Trust Fund.

3.2 In administration the Trust Fund, the Trustee shall ensure that all transactions and management decisions are conducted in accordance with Shariah principles, including the prohibition of riba (interest), gharar (excessive uncertainty), and maisir (gambling or speculative elements).

3.3 The Trustee shall appoint, or shall at all times maintain access to, a suitably qualified and independent Shariah adviser or Shariah consultant to advise on, review and confirm the Shariah compliance of the Trust, the Trust Fund, its investments, operations, transactions, income and distributions. The Trustee shall administer and manage the Trust strictly in accordance with Shariah principles and shall have due regard to, and act in accordance with, the opinion, ruling, guidance and recommendations of such Shariah adviser in relation to the Trust Fund. In the event any investment, transaction, income, gain or asset of the Trust is determined to be non-Shariah-compliant, the Trustee shall immediately take such rectification, purification, disposal, segregation or other remedial steps as may be required by Shariah principles and this Deed. The Trustee may rely in good faith on any opinion, ruling or guidance issued by such Shariah adviser, provided always that such reliance shall not relieve the Trustee from its ultimate responsibility to administer the Trust in accordance with this Deed.

3.4 The Shariah adviser so appointed shall review the transactions, investments, income and distributions of the Trust Fund and may issue such rulings, guidance and recommendations as may be necessary to ensure ongoing compliance with Shariah principles. The Shariah adviser shall not assume fiduciary responsibility for the management of the Trust Fund, and ultimate responsibility for the administration and management of the Trust Fund in accordance with Shariah principles shall remain with the Trustee.

4. TRUSTEE POWERS

4.1 Trustees have the discretion (after proper consideration) whether or not to use the power as it varies according to the character of the trust. If powers are used or unused upon proper consideration, the beneficiary will not be allowed to complain. In administrating the Trust and in facilitating the management of the Trust in accordance to Clause 3.1 of the Deed, the Trustee shall have the following powers: -

a) all the powers conferred under the Trustee Act 1949;

b) to do all things and perform all acts which in the Trustee's judgment is necessary and proper for the protection of the Trust Fund;

c) to hold and continue to hold on trust the Trust Fund on behalf of the Settlor, so long as they deem proper, and to manage in the authorized operations are Shariah-compliant assets that do not involve riba (interest), gharar (excessive uncertainty), maisir (gambling), or any activities contrary to Shariah principles;

d) to make, execute, acknowledge, and deliver all deeds, releases, mortgages, leases, contracts, agreements, instruments, and other obligations of whatsoever nature relating to the Trust Fund, and generally to have full right, power and authority to do all things and perform all acts necessary to make the instruments proper and legal;

e) to compromise, settle, arbitrate, or defend any claim or demand in favor of or against the Trust;

f) to incur and pay the ordinary and necessary expenses of administration, including (but not by way of limitation) reasonable attorneys' fees, accountants' fees, counsel fees, and the like;

g) to act through an agent or attorney-in-fact, by and under power of attorney duly executed by the Trustee, in carrying out any of the authorized powers and duties;

h) to represent the Trust and the Beneficiary in all suits and legal proceedings relating to the Trust Fund in any court of law of equity, or before any other bodies or tribunals; to initiate suits and to prosecute them to final judgment or decree; to compromise claims or suits, and to submit the same to arbitration when, in his judgment, such course is necessary or proper;

(j) to pay all lawful taxes and assessments and the necessary expenses of the Trust and make payment of any and all other legitimate expenses of the Trust from the Trust Fund;

(k) to collect notes, obligations, dividends, and all other payments that may be due and payable to the Trust; to deposit the proceeds thereof, as well as any other moneys from whatsoever source they may be derived, in any suitable bank or depository, and to draw the same from time to time;

(l) appoint any one or more of its own officers as its attorney (jointly and severally if more than one) with power to execute documents on behalf of the Trustee for the day to day running of the Trust; and

(m) engage and pay, at the expense of the Trust, for the advice or services of any banker, banking company, lawyer, accountant or any other professional advisers or experts whose advice or services may be reasonably necessary and rely and act upon any advice so obtained for the performance of their respective duties and services hereunder and shall incur no liability for action taken or suffered to be taken or omitted to be taken in good faith and in accordance with the opinion or advice of such any banker, banking company, lawyer, accountant or any other.

5. TRUSTEE FEE

5.1 In consideration of the services provided by the Trustee, the Trustee may charge a fee for such amount as may be prescribed by the Trustee from time to time (hereinafter referred to as the "Trustee Fee") of which the Trustee is entitled to reimburse themselves the Trustee Fee from the Trust Fund.

5.2 In the event that the Trust Fund is insufficient towards the settlement of the Trustee Fees, and the Trustee Fee remain outstanding after they have become due and/or reimbursable and payable, unless otherwise prohibited by law, the Trustee shall have lien over the Trust Fund with the power to sell any or all the assets under the Trust in or towards settlement of the outstanding amount.
